Merrymeeting glows in the glass, opening up with the invigorating scent of vanilla, zesty orange peel and floral pink peppercorn. The flavor is a layered swirl that begins with a spicy snap of ginger and Szechuan peppercorn before moving through herbal notes of rooibos tea and Kaffir lime leaves, finishing with the bright earthiness of cinnamon and cardamom. To tie it all together, it's lightly sweetened with organic raw sugar and beetroot. Merrymeeting is a balanced complement to cola, tonic, or ginger beer, but it also has the range to elevate a more complex cocktail.

OUR PROCESS

We understand that blazing a new trail is harder than walking a beaten path, but it's also the only way to discover something new. Our deliciously distinctive Merrymeeting Spiced Rum exemplifies our spirit of exploration.

The hard work begins with Merrymeeting's base. Instead of following the theory that spices will hide the flaws, we follow the same painstaking process that we use for our other spirits. First, we ferment 100% certified organic evaporated cane juice with wine yeast at a slower, cooler temperature to preserve the fruit and floral notes of the sugar cane. Next, our master distiller Graham runs each small batch through our custom-built copper pot still—not once, but twice—relying on his 20+ years of experience to make precise cuts.

We then macerate a unique mix of eleven dried spices into the rum, carefully blending the terroir of Maine with spices from around the world, and add a touch of organic cane sugar to bind it all together. After filtering Merrymeeting and adding pure Sebago Lake water to proof the rum, it's finished in former Jamaican rum barrels to add a final note of fruit and funk.

Of course, it would've been easier for us to follow the well-worn path of a sugary vanilla and cinnamon spiced rum, but we think you'll agree that the trail we blazed with Merrymeeting leads to a much more interesting and delicious destination.

OUR STORY

Three of Strong Spirits is based in a converted warehouse in the bustling East Bayside neighborhood of Portland, Maine. We believe that there are no shortcuts when it comes to producing super premium rum. We use our vibrant tasting room as the testing ground to create small batch spirits that can stand on their own but also play well in cocktails.
